

As i travel the states i am able to ascertain the weather and traffic for a location i am travelling to. This saves me time and gas which as you know is a commodity that we should be conserving. Please understand that this is a service that can not be duplicated by am/fm/tv unless you are in the immediate area. But by that time you already know both traffic and weather.
Thank you,

Bill Sheridan